

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of not providing fair and balanced coverage during an election season. They are essentially providing free advertising to the Bush campaign without offering the same opportunity to the Kerry campaign.